Sch. Margie Smith, Capt. James McLean, arrived from the No Man's Land seining ground yesterday, after an absence of only 13 days with 175 barrels of salt mackerel. Capt. McLean reports a large body of fish from 15 to 25 miles of No Man's Land and thinks that if Capt. Jacobs had been there with his steamer a few days ago he would have got 1000 barrels. The fish were two sizes 170 and 220 count to a salted barrel.
